THE

BOOK OF

POST TIME

W. O. S. D.

TO THE READERS.

TO remove all Doubts about this Proposition, as to the First Part of this Book, you must understand, That the most noted Persons, first from Adam to Joseph, A. M. 2198. are all Descendents one from another. From the death of the said Joseph, and the servitude of the Jews from Moses to Saul, A. M. 2889. they were all Judges; and from Saul to the Captivity, A. M. 3372. Kings of the Jews. Then from Darius to Alexander the Great, succeeded the Monarchy of the Persians; and from the said Alexander to Octavianus, is the Reign of the Grecians; and then came in the Emperors of Rome to Leopold the First then Reigning. But because from the time of Charles the Great, in the year of our Lord 801. there were two Emperors; the one in the East, at Constantinople, and the other in the west, you have an account of those of Constantinople, to the taking of that City by the Turks, A. C. 1453. which are not so exactly mentioned by Historians, especially to the days of John Catacusinus; and therefore it is no wonder, if there be any mistake of the former times. As for the rest, all things are clearly demonstrated, and therefore there is no need of any further explaining there-upon.

To the Readers.

As to the Second Part, it was collected by a very diligent observer of many years Actions therein named, which you may the easier be convinced of, when you may see the day of the Moneth to every Action and Passage: which exactness you cannot find in any other Book of this kind whatsoever. Farewel.
